Driver History Record (DHR)
Victim, Violation & Withdrawal Codes

Upon receipt in the Secretary of State's office, convictions for violations such as those listed in this pamphlet will be recorded on the respective driver's record. These violations can generally be defined as:

IMMEDIATE ACTION

May result in withdrawal of drivers license and/or privileges.

*NON-POINT ASSIGNED

May be utilized in conjunction with other factors relating to the driver's privilege to operate a motor vehicle, e.g., violation issued during a period of withdrawal.

POINT ASSIGNED

May result in suspension or revocation of drivers license and/or privileges when three or more offenses are committed within any 12-month period. The action is determined by the severity "points" of the violations and the driver's past record.

May result in a two-month disqualification of CDL privileges, if two serious violations are committed within a three-year period, or a four-month disqualification of CDL privileges, if three serious violations are committed within a three-year period.

NC—NO CORRESPONDING ILLINOIS CODE

No similar offense in the Illinois Vehicle Code; history item and/or cannot be utilized in Illinois Driver Control Program without further clarification.
